

Melinda Thomas Receives Lantern Award

April 19, 2017 – Melinda Thomas, Head Teller at the Main Office, was presented with the 1st quarter employee Lantern Award by Louis Holloway, CEO. Thomas was nominated by four of her co-workers. One of the nomination forms read, “She comes in early, stays late, and helps other branch tellers with issues. She multitasks and trains new tellers, which takes infinite patience.”

Thomas started working at Community First Bank & Trust in 2005 as a teller. She took on the role of Main Office Head Teller in 2009 and continues to hold this position.

Community First Bank & Trust, based in Columbia, TN, was founded in 1999 by a group of Maury County business leaders who wanted to provide a superior banking experience to the communities they serve. CFB&T is a commercial bank operating eight offices in Maury, Hickman and Williamson Counties. The bank provides a comprehensive line of banking services to consumers and businesses in the Middle Tennessee area. Additional information is available at www.cfbk.com.
